

I am a subscriber to XM radio. This is a service I pay for because living in a rural area limits the radio coverage. I am extremely upset of the NAB petition to limit XM radio's traffic and weather coverage. This is the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of. There is no possible reason for this other than the monopolizing by the local broadcasters! It is also disturbing the FCC would even consider something like this.